

Insight Adventures

Participant Conduct Agreement

While we will be traveling as a private group, participants are expected to abide by the following code of conduct, set and enforced by the full-time chaperones during the trip. The chaperones will act as the participants' guardians during the trip, however participants are also expected to respect the privacy and safety of themselves and their fellow participants.

Please review the following conduct agreement.

Agreement:

By attending this trip, the participant agrees to the following:

1. The participant will follow all instruction given by any Instructor or chaperone, who are there to ensure the safety of all participants at all times.
2. The participant will not engage in any of the following activities:
 - a. Use of foul and offensive language.
 - b. Alcohol, cigarettes or controlled substances of any kind.
 - c. Hanging out a room of a member of the opposite sex. (There will be communal areas where students may hang out together)
 - d. Deface the natural surroundings or property. (graffiti, vandalism, etc.)
 - e. Horse-play that could endanger the safety of the participants or chaperones during the trip.

If the participant violates any of these items, the participant understands that they will have certain privileges taken away from them during the trip, which may include participation in activities or free time.

If there is a serious infraction of conduct by the participant, Insight Adventures will contact the guardian immediately.